About Eric

Eric Thompson is a speaker, comedian, and magician who has spent almost five decades performing for live audiences across the United States and around the world. He blends humor, storytelling, and real-life experience into messages on resilience, perspective, and finding joy in the middle of life's challenges.

As the founder of Million Miles, Million Smiles, Eric has performed in more than 60 countries, including hundreds of shows overseas for people in very different circumstances. Off stage he has run a business for over 30 years, served as a firefighter/EMT, and held elected office as a city councilman. His talks are built on life, not theory.

Signature Talks

Million Miles, Million Smiles 30 to 60 min
Travel stories from 60-plus countries and the perspective that comes with seeing real struggle. The flagship keynote for corporate, faith-based, and nonprofit audiences.

What Stage Lights Taught Me About Real Life 30 to 60 min
Almost five decades of live performance turned into lessons on reading a room, adapting under pressure, and recovering in real time. Built for leadership and sales teams.

Finding the Funny When Life Isn't 30 to 60 min
The personal talk. Hardship, humor as a survival tool, and finding meaning when things fall apart. Strong for faith-based events and fundraisers.
